

COUNT BERNSTORFF SAYS HE DOES NOT KNOW DR. MEYER

TELLS SEC. LANSING HE HAS NO
KNOWLEDGE OF SUCH A PERSON.

LITTER SEEMS REFUTATION

Head of German Red Cross Has Letter Which Disproves Charges
That Were Published.

(Associated Press)
Washington, June 18.—Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador, personally informed Secretary of State Lansing today that he had no knowledge of Dr. Alfred Meyer, said to have been secretly in this country to buy war material for the German army.

New York, June 18.—Proof that Dr.
Anton Meyer Gerhard, the German Red Cross lecturer, who sailed for Berlin on June 6 under the special protection of the United States government as a special messenger of Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, was not the mysterious
"Dr. A. Meyer," a German officer, was produced by Capt. E. Hecker, who is now the head of the local German Red Cross office.

It consisted of a letter written by Dr. Meyer Gerhard in Jacksonville, Fla., in his own hand on March 8 last,
the day on which, according to Mrs.
Selma Lewis and a local newspaper,
Dr. Meyer Gerhard, posing as Dr. A.
Meyer, privy councillor of the first rank and chief of the department of army supplies of the imperial German government, signed a contract with her relative to the proposed purchase of 350,000 Krag-Jorgensen rifles. On March 8 Dr. Meyer Gerhard was supposed to have been in this city in consultation with Mrs. Lewis.

The letter supports the statement to the effect that neither Dr. Meyer Gerhard nor Dr. Meyer of the imperial German government, called upon Mrs. Lewis, but that a man, posing as one of these for his own purpose did see her. The letter indicates that the story published about the departure of a German officer in the guise of Dr. Meyer Gerhard is untrue.

Washington, June 18.—The German embassy does not intend to permit published charges that fraud was perpetrated on the United States government in connection with the sending of Dr. Gerhard to Germany as its representative to go unchallenged.

The state department received an unqualified denial of the published reports from Haniel Von Hainhausen, counsellor of the German embassy.
The department also received a message from Count Bernstorff announcing that he would call at the state department this morning, presumably to supplement the dispatch sent from the embassy.

Bernstorff Feels Attack Personal.

There is reason to believe that the ambassador will inform the state department that he considers the publication of these reports an unwarranted personal attack upon himself, and that he may ask the state department to co-operate with him in establishing the falsity of them is considered likely.

The message from the embassy contained the statement that the published reports constituted a "personal attack" on the ambassador. It is taken that the German embassy and German sympathizers generally have long felt that they were not being treated fairly by the American press and the recent reports will be cited as evidence of this. It is understood also that these reports will be pointed to as likely to have a retarding effect on efforts being made to adjust the serious submarine issue now up between the two governments.

Six Killed In Bad Storm In West; Is Moving This Way

Wild Wind Storm Unroofed
Buildings And Injured
Many People

(Associated Press)
Kansas City, Mo., June 18.—Six persons were killed in a wild rain storm in this section and in the southwest last night, while more than a score were injured, none fatally, however.
Yesterday's rains in northern Oklahoma, all of Kansas, Iowa, Missouri and western Nebraska were the heaviest in ten years.

At Paris, Mo., and near LaMonte, Mo., houses were unroofed and one small building was blown down.

The disturbance is moving toward the Great Lakes, although it is somewhat diminished.

A number of the rivers are rising rapidly and many washouts are reported. Seven small tornadoes struck Ellis county, Kansas, and some houses were demolished. At a picnic which was being held at the home of a farmer, the guests were lifted from their feet and blown several hundred feet.
None were seriously hurt.

C. G. REISS DIED EARLY THIS MORN

PASSED AWAY AT NORTH DIXON
HOME—HAS LONG LIVED IN THIS CITY.

Christian S. Reiss passed away this morning at about 6 o'clock at his home, 103 North Galena avenue, after an illness of several weeks. His remains will be taken to his old home at Catawissa, Pa., for interment.

Mr. Reiss was born in Germany and was 83 years, 9 months and 15 days of age. When a boy his parents came to this country and after reaching his majority he learned the piano tuning business. He came to Illinois in the early 60's and took up his residence in Dixon and traveled out of here, visiting to larger towns in the northern and central parts of the state in tuning pianos. He kept up this work for many years, but for the past number of years has lived a retired life.
Deceased was never married and the only relatives he leaves are a nephew, John A. Billig and a niece, both residing in Pennsylvania. A grand nephew, Clarence Billig, has been with him for the past few months.

Mr. Reiss was very conservative and made investments in land that in later years rapidly enhanced in value.
When the new Y. M. C. A. building in Dixon was erected a few years ago Mr. Reiss took a deep interest in the movement and gave $5,000 toward its erection. Being a man of retiring disposition his acquaintance was limited to his own personal friends.

PAST COMMANDER DEAD

Davenport, Ia., June 18.—E. H.
Buck, Past Commander of the Illinois
G. A. R., is dead.

made by the state department:

"The department of state has received a telegram from the German counsellor dated June 16, calling attention to articles appearing in the previous day's newspapers regarding an alleged breach of confidence on the part of the ambassador in sending a secret German war agent to Berlin in place of Dr. Gerhard, the Red Cross delegate. In reference to these articles the ambassador states
as follows:

"It is unnecessary for me to assure you that the story circulated by these articles is untrue from beginning to end. It contains a personal attack upon the ambassador and his delegate, Dr. Meyer Gerhard, and is likely at the same time to nullify the sincere and earnest efforts of the ambassador to bring about an understanding between the United States and Germany in the Lusitania question."

The legislature expected to clean up their remaining work today and threatened to postpone the adjournment of the legislature.

the appointment of five representatives and five senators to investigate the causes of the recent epidemic of foot and mouth disease.

Wilbur Cortright farm on the Chicahead to pick it up. In walking back he laid this hand on the horse's back and the animal kicked with both feet, one foot striking him on the chin and the Making Estimate On Lowering The Dixon Opera House

Lessees Have Architect Here Today To Figure On Alterations

Plans are under way for remodeling the Dixon Opera House block in this city, making a ground floor playhouse of it. Irving & Buchanan of Chicago, the lessees, have secured an option from Mrs. P. P. Starin for the purchase of the block and they were here today with a Chicago architect looking over the building with a view of having plans drawn for the remodeling. In case this is done at least two of the store rooms will be done away with and the other rooms shortened.

Since taking the lease of the opera house a few weeks ago the firm has been playing a stock company with three changes of plays weekly and a big business has been the result. They are greatly pleased with the business done and feel that Dixon has a great future as a theatrical city.

Utilites Company And Officials Of Sterling Clash Over Line

Sterling, June 18.—Mayor A. J.
Platt has ordered the I. N. U. from crossing the First avenue bridge with its high tension wires, to get to Rock Falls to furnish that city with current for power purposes.

Mayor Platt said that he was unaware of the fact that the company had ever had any trestles on the top of the bridge or were at work on it now to complete arrangements to cross the structure with their high tension wires, until he learned it accidentally.

He put on his fighting clothes right away and going down to the bridge with the chief of police he found that a force of men were on the bridge, putting the finishing touches to the trestles, getting them ready for the stringing of the big wires which were to carry 2300 current to that city.

The mayor ordered a cessation of work and gave them only a short time in which to stop. The foreman of the force was somewhat wrathful, but he was forced to smother his wrath and he stopped work instantly.
The manager of the company of this district, Mr. Fleuher, visited the mayor and said he was very much surprised that his men had been stopped.

Thursday, the chief of police, J. C.
Haglock, served a writ on the manager to get every bit of the trestles and wires from the bridge not later than Saturday of this week. Mr. Platt stated that if the order was not heeded he would see to it that his orders were obeyed and he would have the city take it down at the expense of the company.

SEE AMERICA FIRST—TOURING THE GREAT LAKES

These American tourists who cannot afford to give a temporary home to the expensive means on a trans-Atlantic liner can obtain a very fine home made brand of seasickness on the Great Lakes at a very small cost.

Touring the Great Lakes is becoming more popular every year. These celebrated collections of unrivalled drinking water produce as fine sunsets as the ocean and are fine enough to satisfy the most exacting traveler. They are usually calm and delightful to tamper with but the bold sea-dog who loves to lash himself to a water cooler and enjoy the raging storm can obtain as much excitement by sailing on Lake Superior in September as he can anywhere in the world.

For one-half what it costs to cross the Atlantic the traveler may insert himself into a handsome steamer 400 feet long in Chicago and travel five days before he gets near enough to Niagara Falls to make navigation unpleasant. He can view the pine woods of Michigan, bargain with the Indians for moosehorns at Mackinac, watch the greatest steamship traffic in the world filing through the Sault Ste Marie canal, participate in a continuous parade of steamships which passes Detroit and salute the great monument which marks the place where Perry licked the enemy with his extemporaneous fleet. If he wishes he can stop at Cleveland and continue his journey on a steamer 500 feet long, wider than any vessel on earth and almost as fast as a train. He can also branch off at Sault Ste Marie and roll west to Duluth, passing scenery which would be worth millions of dollars to hotels if it was centrally located in Europe.

Travel on the Great Lakes does not consist exclusively of water, as it does on the ocean. The tourist has a chance to inspect half a dozen states as they pass by him in the middle distance and to stop off any number of times at fascinating hotels set in the primeval forests contiguous to excellent golf links. Each year larger and larger steamers are built to take care of the Americans who feel only half naturalized because they have not traveled on these lakes and it will yet be possible to travel between the Great Lake Cities on steamships larger than the ocean liners of twenty years ago.

Lake steamers are not only clean, but they are free from the pest who asks you if this is your first voyage and who then refers to his seventeen "crossings." This fact alone makes lake travel far superior to the Atlantic for pure pleasure.

BRITISH SUBMARINES SINKS THREE SHIPS

5,000 Turks Lose Lives in Undersea Exploit.

London, June 18.—Nearly 5,000 men lost their lives when three Turkish transports were sunk in the Golden Horn, in the harbor of Constantinople, by a British submarine, according to a dispatch from Tenedos. Only a few of the soldiers were saved. The submarine escaped without damage.

Coincidentally with this report came another from Rome announcing that an Austrian submarine had torpedoed the Italian submarine Medusa in the Adriatic. No other details were given of what is said to be the first naval battle fought under the sea in the history of war.

In sinking the Turkish transports the British undersea craft made a perilous journey from the entrance of the Straits, through the Sea of Marmora and ended near Constantinople. The submarine was obliged to pick its way through hundreds of mines anchored to the bottom of the Dardanelles and the Marmora, and also had to avoid the heavy chains stretched across the Narrows.

Announcement Luncheon

Miss Florence Drew was hostess Thursday evening at her home, 822 Peoria avenue, at a most delightful function, a rose luncheon, given in honor of her cousin, Miss Olive Drew, to be a bride of the coming week, and of another cousin, Mrs. Herbert Drew of Geneseo, Ill. Ten girl friends of this city were the other guests.

The house was charmingly decorated in pink and white, peonies in both colors, syringa, and festoons carrying out the color scheme. The evening preceding the luncheon was pleasantly spent in games and music, Miss Bertha Bennett giving a delightful vocal solo and Miss Bennett and Miss Ruth Lievan rendering a piano duet. Sections of cards in odd shapes containing parts of Mother Goose rhymes, the matching sections to be found upon the luncheon table, assisted the guests in finding their places and was provocative of much merriment. The table was beautifully decorated, a candleabra with pink candles used as the centerpiece with a single candlestick and candle at each end of the table, and bowls of pink and white roses between. Above the table on the chandelier satin ribbons were tied in a huge bow, the ends of which were draped to the corners of the table while the central bow suspended a kewpie.

The guests, upon being seated, found little pink satin sacks at each place, which when opened let the cat out of the bag, for each contained a cat of gray cardboard upon which were written the names, Florence M. Drew and John A. Krug, announcing their engagement. This came as a great surprise to those present, and a merry shower of best wishes followed the exclamations of surprise.

A dainty luncheon was served, with cream and cake, carrying out a pink and white color scheme. Pink roses were the favors. At the end of the luncheon tiny candles were brought and given to each one, lighted, and allowed to burn to determine who might be the next of the number to issue announcements. Miss Bessie Self's candle was the first to go out.

Miss Drew is one of Dixon's most charming young women, highly accomplished in music. Mr. Krug, who came here a few years from Ashton, is employed in the shoe department at the Beehive, where he is highly esteemed for his business ability. Both Miss Drew and Mr. Krug have numerous friends here who will extend the heartiest best wishes and congratulations on the announcement of their approaching marriage.

A number of married people will enjoy a scramble supper and select dancing party at the Armory this evening, the affair taking the place of a picnic which had been arranged and which the weather conditions made it necessary to call off. The Marquette orchestra will furnish music for the occasion.

Following the supper a program was rendered consisting of music interspersed with readings. At intervals throughout the evening music was furnished on the Edison Amberola by Mr. Meyer. For this the class wish to express their appreciation and their thanks, Misses Bertha Bennett and Ruth Lievan played a very pretty piano duet and Miss Bennett sang a solo, "Bartlett's Dream," which was followed by an encore "If No One Ever Marries Me," which was followed by merry applause and laughter. Miss Mary Hintz gave an enjoyable piano number and Mrs. Winnifred Frye and H. B. Green both gave clever readings.

Talked the Bill to Death.

One of the most dramatic holdups in congress was made in 1901 by Senator Thomas H. Carter of Montana, who talked to death a $60,000,000 rivers and harbors bill chiefly because the house had refused to appropriate money to irrigate the dry lands of the west.

"I shall do what lies in my power to prevent this bill from passing," the senator shouted. "It will not pass if my strength does not fall to such an extent that I can no longer occupy this floor, and I am in a pretty fair state of health."

To the laughter of the senate and the galleries Carter then described the clam flats and the mud banks of unheard of places for which large appropriations had been made in the present bill. He discussed the draft and tonnage of the scows and the lobster pots. He lasted for more than thirteen hours. When he was through the congress was dead, the senator's own term was ended, and it was time to inaugurate Vice President Roosevelt.—New York Herald.

A CRIMINAL LAWYER ON "CRIMINALS."

At the recent meeting of the Illinois State Society of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology at Quincy, George T. Page of Peoria, president of the society and one of the leading legal lights in Illinois, spoke plainly concerning criminal conditions in this country. His subject was, "The Criminal, Why Is He and What To Do With Him."

An excerpt from Mr. Page's address follows:

"There are many conditions created by our system of criminal law and its administration that must have the effect of creating criminals, instead of reforming them. Some of those are created by:

"1. Failure to take into consideration the families and dependents of those charged with criminal offenses.

"2. Imprisonment in county jails for months, persons merely charged with, but not convicted of any crime, along with old offenders, and oftentimes under the most humiliating and debasing circumstances.

"3. Permitting discretion in the administration of the law by police officers, prosecuting attorneys, and other officials, charged with the duty of impartially administering the law.

"4. Failure to make the terms of imprisonment educative and reformatory.

"5. Turning loose upon society, after service of a given sentence, men who are confirmed and hardened criminals—of whom it is known, that they will, whenever and as often as opportunity presents, commit the same or worse crimes than those for which they were originally imprisoned.

"6. The open and notorious refusal and neglect of law officers to enforce certain laws.

"7. Creating and permitting loose moral and social conditions, particularly in large towns and cities, that, while they in many cases do not actually violate any statutory enactment, yet, must result in creating a lawless and a criminal atmosphere, from which criminals must inevitably come.

"While of late years there is considerable disposition and effort to modify these bad conditions, yet men and women who are drawn into the net of the criminal law come from every walk of life, occupy almost every known social position, represent every age from young children to old gray-haired men and women, some have had the benefits of education and some have not, some have lived in good environment and some in bad. To administer the criminal law so as to get right results for the state and to do justice to the accused (and the state is bound to do justice even to criminals) calls for the highest efficiency and the greatest devotion to duty on the part of every official charged with the duty of the administration of the law."

Mr. Page pointed out a few instances in which the court officers had participated in composition of crimes in which articles that had been stolen, or remuneration had been made the offender had not been prosecuted and in this way violated their oath of office.

GROWING CROPS FROM GLACIERS.

Did you ever hear that ice produced good crops? No? Well that's what Uncle Sam's geological survey is telling us now.

It seems that the geological survey men have been digging into ancient history—just a few millions of years back, into the glacial period; and they have reached the conclusion that the farmers in the northern part of our country wouldn't be near so well off, nor would the country have near so good a food supply right now if it hadn't been for the fact that all the northern part of the continent was at one time completely covered with a vast sheet of ice hundreds or even thousands of feet in thickness.

The study and mapping of the moraines and other deposits of the ancient glaciers has for a long time been one of the lines of scientific activity carried on by the geological survey. It has been found that besides matters of geologic and geographic interest, the various glacial deposits are of great importance to agriculture. The pulverized and mixed rock material, pulverized by the ponderous, moving glaciers, spread over the uneven surfaces of the older rock formations in the northern part of the country, afford the deep, rich and enduring soils whose yield in farm products constitutes so great a part of the nation's wealth.

Other industries have benefited from the visit of the great ice sheet. The vast quantities of clay available for the manufacture of brick and drain tile and the widely distributed deposits of sand and gravel available for road material and concrete and other works—all the result of the great glaciers—are resources of great value. And in the swamps of the glacial areas lie stored great quantities of peat awaiting the time when conditions may require their use as fuel or fertilizer.

All these facts and many others concerning the history of the Great Lakes and other regions which were under the glaciers have been put into a pamphlet by the geologic sharps and the farmer who wants to find out how he is growing crops aided by the ice sheet has only to write to the geological survey for a copy of "Monograph 53."

THE COURT HOUSE LAMP POSTS.

The beautiful wrought iron lamp posts at either side of the entrance to the Lee county court house and their counterparts at either side of the entrance to the court house yard, have been painted over with a silver color. Many people think the original black was much better looking than the gray and George Eichenberg, the popular janitor at the county building, has been in danger of mob violence at the hands of some of the ladies of the neighborhood who object to the new color of the lamp posts.

The posts are designed and intended to be black and the contrast to the white stone of the building would be better if they were left black. The gray color destroys much of the effectiveness of the ornaments.

If what they say of the democrats, "Few die and none resign," is true, Mr. Bryan is hardly a democrat. We don't believe his party is very proud of him, anyway.

What has become of Teddy Roosevelt? Some good friend must have told him to subside 'til the clouds rolled by.

BARRYMORE NOW A PICTURE STAR

Lionel, Brother of John and Ethel, Featured on Screen

STUDIED PAINTING ABROAD

Now Finds That Making Pictures Is More Profitable Than Painting Them—Added to "Romance of Elaine" Star Company.

Lionel Barrymore, nephew of John Drew and celebrated brother of the famous John and Ethel Barrymore, will be featured in motion pictures this summer.

This is not Mr. Barrymore's first appearance on the screen—he has had important parts in several big productions, but it is with the legitimate stage that his name has been most associated. He was broken into the profession by his uncle, John Drew, with whom he played for a number of years. Among the famous plays with which he was identified were "The Mummy and the Humming Bird", "The Other Girl", Barrie's play "Pantaloons", "The Best of Friends", and "Sag Harbor", with James A. Hearne. After playing in "The Other Girl", Mr. Barrymore fulfilled youthful aspirations by going to Paris to study painting, an occupation so fascinating that it held him in France for three years. Mr. Barrymore says that when he returned to America he found his fellow artists in the cast of "The Other Girl" all famous—Richard Bennett, Wally Eddinger, Doris Keane, and Tully Marshall, which caused him to think hard upon the old saw about the cobbler sticking to his last. Then he decided there was more money in acting in pictures than in painting them and worked in a number of feature productions.

Lionel Barrymore

Mr. Barrymore owns a fine summer home at Rocky Point, Long Island, but says that he has been trying in vain for years to get acquainted with it. No sooner does he start to leave town than he is offered a fat engagement which no same man could refuse.

History repeated itself with him this year since on the eve of his departure for Rocky Point he was offered an engagement with Pathe to play the "heavy" in "The Romance of Elaine", a well known serial photoplay. The fact that his work would take him to Ithaca, N. Y., where his lines would be cast in pleasant places, reconciles Mr. Barrymore to another summer's exile from the mansion he cannot use.

Wash All Fruit.

Incoming cargoes of fruits should be closely observed for traces of poisonous insecticides. Growers are not always careful to remove all traces of sprays before marketing their fruit. Housekeepers can protect themselves from danger from this source by washing all fruit in several waters before serving it. It would be advisable and insure greater safety to wash the fruit before placing it in the storeroom or ice chest. Sprays and powders of sufficient strength to kill insects which feed upon and destroy fruit trees and fruit would prove fatal to life if partaken of by human beings.

A Prankster's Trick.

"What pusses me," said a well dressed man to a police captain to whom he had complained that a roll of bills had been taken from his trousers pocket in a subway car, "is how the thief got the money, since I never felt his hand in my pocket."

To which the official replied: "Let me explain. As soon as the thief had completed his preliminary work to satisfy himself that you had some money in your pocket he set to work to get it out. But he didn't put his hand in your pocket. This is what he did. He took hold of the lining of your pocket with his thumb and index finger, and when the car lurched or jolted he pulled the lining up a little more until finally the edge of the bill came in sight. As soon as enough of the bill had appeared to enable him to get a grip on it he carefully plucked it out of your pocket, and you never knew the difference. It appears simple, but it requires considerable skill."—New York Sun.

Jelly Roll Recipe
Only Two Eggs Required
By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

This Jelly Roll is fast becoming very popular on account of the way it keeps fresh. With proper handling it should keep fresh a whole week, providing it isn't eaten up in the meantime, for it is every bit as good as it looks.

K C Jelly Roll
One cup sifted flour, scant half teaspoonful salt; 2 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1 cup milk; 1 cup sugar; 2 eggs beaten light; 1 cup sugar; 1/2 cup hot milk; glass of jelly; powdered sugar.

Beat the sugar into the eggs; add the lemon rind, then the flour, sifted three times with the salt and baking powder; and, lastly, the milk. Bake in a buttered dripping pan; turn out on a damp cloth, trim off the crisp edges; spread with jelly and turn over and over into a roll while still warm. Dredge the top with powdered sugar.

Hot milk used in the jelly roll enables it to be rolled without danger of cracking. Have the milk scalding hot, also be careful to have the eggs and sugar beaten together until very light and creamy. Bake in a moderate oven.

K C Jelly Roll is illustrated on page thirty-two of the new and handsomely illustrated 64-page K C Cook's Book, which may be secured free by sending the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the Jagues Mfg. Co., Chicago, Ill.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED FOR IRA W. LEWIS

SUPERVISORS TELL OF RESPECT THEY HAD FOR COUNTY OFFICIAL.

The following resolutions were passed by the board of Supervisors Thursday afternoon:

Since the last meeting of this Board of Supervisors our friend, Ira W. Lewis has been called to his eternal reward, after a long and distinguished life of service to his county and to his fellow men. For nearly a half century he occupied positions of trust in connection with the County of Lee, having repeatedly been its Circuit Clerk and Recorder and at other times filling subordinate but no less arduous offices under it. His extended experience, his conscientiousness and diligence gave him a knowledge of the manifold duties of these offices and of county affairs in general that no other person may possibly ever be privileged again to have. This knowledge and experience made him at times practically indispensable to the County, and even now his loss will be felt greatly in the administration of the offices with which he was so long connected.

In social as well as in private life, he was characterized not only by ability but by a wonderful fidelity and carefulness in the performance of such manifold duties as were laid upon him. Though often suffering great pain he never complained and never allowed any remission of the tasks imposed upon him. Although long passed the age when other men retire from life's work, he feared to relax from his accustomed labor for fear of the mental and spiritual decline which might come from idleness. An extreme conscientiousness was his most marked characteristic, while his singular modesty obscured his real ability from all but those who knew him best. With no common school education and handicapped with the heritage of poverty, he employed the hours that other men devote to amusements in making of himself a scholar, a scientist and teacher to whom thousands of students now owe a debt of gratitude. He realized as is given to very few men to realize, the best that is in life, even though neither riches, travel nor leisure were ever his. He was always ready cheerfully to aid this board with information as to his own offices as well as upon other matters pertaining to the county welfare. His vast knowledge of the records made him of especial help not only to us but to all having business with him.

No word of censure or criticism of his public or private life was ever heard, while his unselfish labors, carried on quietly and without ostentation, in behalf of his fellow men will make his memory cherished for generations.

Be it therefore Resolved by the Board of Supervisors of Lee county that we deplore his loss, that we make this public acknowledgement of our appreciation and love for him, and in witness thereof cause these resolutions to be inscribed upon our records.

Doctors, do you need letter heads, bill heads, envelopes. If so, the Evening Telegraph job plant can supply you on short notice.

Another Pet Idea Smashed!

By MOSS.
Of course you know our dear old friend, the ichthyosaurus, is as dead as a doornail.

He's about as out of date as the idea that newspaper advertising doesn't pay.

Newspaper advertising absolutely pays under two conditions: When the newspaper is a good medium and when the advertising is properly displayed and truthful.

It pays the merchant and it pays the buyer. Experience has proved this a million times.

This paper is a good medium.

Dramatic Notes

FAMILY THEATRE

It is truly an all-Girl show at the Family theatre as far as the vaudeville is concerned for the last half of the week, and they are surely "some girls." The three Kelsey Sisters in Songs, imitations, acrobatic and modern dancing, are artists in their line and Frances Dyer, singing comedienne has a sweet voice and charming personality; while the Transfield Sisters were accorded much applause for their musical novelty act. If you wish to be entertained with refined, high class vaudeville go to the Family theatre. Last evening the picture "My Lady of the Snows," featuring Edna Mayo and Sydney Ainsworth was much enjoyed and eagerly followed.

The Quicksands of Society, a Biograph drama in two reels; and An Expensive Visit, Lubin comedy, are the pictures for this evening.

PRINCES THEATRE

Tonight the Princess theatre has on its bill a two reel Domino feature entitled The Scales of Justice, with Frank Borzage and Clara Williams in the leading roles, a story wherein a man starts life anew after serving his time in the penitentiary and showing the hard struggle he has. The other reels are the Mutual Weekly showing the scenes from the war zone together with the current events throughout the world. The last reel is a comic comedy entitled Brave and Bold, a comedy in which a joke played on father results in a deception which causes him to show decided bravery.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Enterprise Stock Co. will present the vital American drama of "Why Girls Leave Home" this evening and promise an exceptionally good tabloid production of the popular drama. Pictures tonight are "Number 329," a thrilling melodrama in two reels, and "Around the World in Ten Minutes," a laughable animated cartoon.

A. J. Graff Jr., of Chicago is here to spend the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Graff.

Mrs. A. P. Arrington and daughter Dorothy and Clara returned last evening from Urbana, Ill., where Miss Dorothy graduated from the State University this spring.

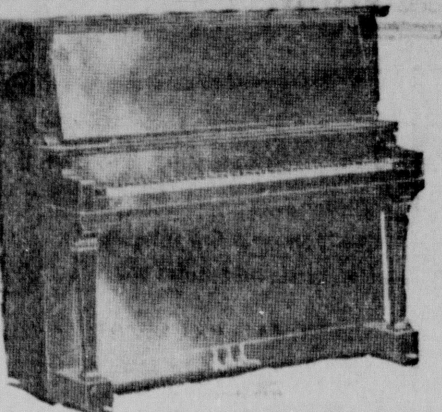

HONOR FORMER DIXON PASTOR

Students at Ames Dedicate Annual to Rev. O. H. Cessna.

The following extract from the Northwestern Church Advocate in regard to Dr. O. H. Cessna will be noted with interest here as Dr. Cessna was at one time the highly esteemed pastor of the Methodist church in this city:

Friends of Dr. O. H. Cessna, who is a member of the Rock River Conference and now head of the department of history at Iowa State college, will be pleased to learn of a real honor conferred on Chaplain Cessna by the students at Ames. The class of '16 dedicated The Bomb, which is the college annual, published by the junior class, to "Orange Howard Cessna, honored and respected by the faculty and students because of the type of manhood that he represents and because of his untiring devotion to Iowa State." There is no honor of the school year that quite equals the honor attached to this.

Is It Worth $2.00 to Look Right?

THE simplest dress, the most inexpensive suit look different over our $2 Gossard Corsets. In Dixon an army of women believe that it is worth $2 to have their figure correctly corseted—they believe clothes do not make the woman unless she has the right corset.

There is quality in this model, style and long wearing service. False economy is extravagance; continued usefulness and satisfaction are real economy. Which is better: 6 $1 corsets a year, or 2 Gossard Corsets at $2 each.

Which is better, authoritative style and fitting or haphazard selection over the counter of the garment which makes or mars the beauty of your figure.

Stop your corset purse leaks; make a careful investigation; be fitted to any corset, then try on this jewel of corset values and we will let you decide. It is worth double the price we ask—$2.00.

ALLIES GAIN IN TERRIFIC FIGHTS

200,000 Germans Are Forced Back Near Arras.

BERLIN ADMITS GROUND LOSS

German Counter Attacks Fail—At Fond de Bural Teutons Are Surrounded on Three Sides—French Fire Nearly 300,000 Shells at Neuville—Gains Made in Alsace.

London, June 18.—One of the most terrific general engagements of the spring campaign in the western theater reached its height in the district north of Arras after raging for two days, according to the night official statement issued in Paris. Important gains for the allies are announced, and these gains are admitted in part by the official statement received from Berlin.

About 200,000 Germans were engaged in the battle and, according to Berlin, the fighting still is going on in trenches along a 600-meter front south of Souchez, where the French gained a foothold after a charge with bayonets and hand grenades.

German Counter Attacks Fail.

The French and British advances have been conducted under cover of a terrific bombardment such as that which preceded the British gains near Hooge. The Germans have made fierce counter attacks, which for the most part have failed, with heavy losses. The French took 600 prisoners south of Hill No. 119.

French advances have been made at points all along the line, notably to the north, west and south of Souchez. In that region the Germans still hold ground in the Fond de Bural, but now are surrounded on three sides.

French Fire 300,000 Shells.

French gains also are reported east and south of Neuville. Nearly 300,000 shells were fired by the French artillery supporting the attack south of Neuville, where the first German line and part of the second were taken by storm.

Win in Alsace.

The French successes in Alsace have continued with the capture of Altenhof, across the river from Metzeral. The Germans have set fire to the latter city.

Late French advances assert that long range guns have bombarded Villers-Cotterets, one person having been wounded. The bombardment of the Rheims cathedral is confirmed.

SLAYS WOMAN HE "LOVES"

Young and Pretty Wife Shot by Admirer—Latter Suicides.

New York, June 18.—Mrs. Barbara Cornelius, the young and pretty wife of Carman Cornelius, a produce market employee, was murdered in her home in Brooklyn early in the morning by George F. McGaghon, a yard master of the Pennsylvania railroad in Jersey City. McGaghon then fired a bullet into his own brain, falling dead across the body of the woman.

The husband of the woman told the police that he was unable to throw any light on the tragedy, but it was established that McGaghon had been in love with Mrs. Cornelius for some time and that he had visited her frequently in her home.

To Arrange for Munitions in U. S.

London, June 18.—David Lloyd-George, the minister of munitions, is arranging to send a prominent business man to America to discuss the whole question of American and Canadian contracts for war munitions. The minister of munitions made this announcement in the house of commons this afternoon in reply to criticism that Canadian manufacturers were required to deal with the imperial government through the house of J. P. Morgan & Co.

Bridge Collapses, Engineer Drowns.

Pana, Ill., June 18.—O. A. Sanner of near Bethany, Macon county, was drowned when a traction engine he was running across the Maffitt Bridge over the Sanzamon river, near Bethany, went through the bridge, carrying him with it into the river.

Free Religious School Opens.

Kewanee, Ill., June 18.—Kewanee's annual free religious day school opened this week in the Central school building with a graded course for children and a normal course for public, Sunday and religious day school teachers.

Girl Riding Motorcycle Is Killed.

Quincy, Ill., June 18.—Miss Emma Meyer, nineteen years old, was killed when a motorcycle on which she and Hugo Keller were riding collided with a buggy.

Defeat Township High School.

Verona, Ill., June 18.—The special election here resulted in the defeat of the proposition to erect a township high school in Vienna township.

Doctors, when you need letter heads, bill heads, or envelopes Phone No. 5, the Evening Telegraph, and our representative will call, show you samples and give you prices.

DEMENTTOWN DOINGS

We absolutely refuse to make any further comment about the weather for the very simple reason—the we have no desire to have the best paper published in Lee county barred from the mails.

When a young man marries his mother always feels sorry for him—and his sisters feel sorry for his wife.

A nonentity is a man who has to tell people who the girl was he married before they are able to remember him.

Not An Expert In Ice.
"I'm sorry the cream is sour!" said young Mrs. Torkins.

"Everything in the refrigerator appears to be spoiled," commented her husband.

"It's the ice man's fault. He will bring around artificial ice, and I can't tell it from the genuine."

Vulgar Display of Wealth.
"My face is my fortune," said the conscious beauty.

"Well, it isn't necessary for you to be constantly flashing your roll," remarked the male cynic.

Some Pertinent Questions

The Alba (Mich.), people have got to be good because the paragraph of the Review is certainly on their trail. This week he asks:

Who got "stewed" at the Republican banquet?

Who is the Alba lady that has a postoffice box in a neighboring town—and why?

Do some of the Alba business places carry so much insurance that the owners don't want a fire department organized?

Who is the local swain that lets his lady friend pay the bills when out together?

Who called on his lady friend and found her on another man's lap?

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE OF FILING FINAL SETTLEMENT.

The Hair Easily Made Beautiful and Attractive

Beautiful hair, thick, fluffy, lustrous and absolutely free from dandruff is not so much a gift of nature as a matter of care and proper nourishment.

A daintily perfumed tonic called Parisian Sage is just what you need to invigorate the hair roots and furnishes the necessary nourishment to not only beautify your hair, but stimulate it to grow long, heavy, soft, fluffy and radiant with life and beauty.

When frequently used, Parisian Sage simply works a miracle even if the hair is dandruffy, falling out, dull, thin, matted or stringy. One application stops itching head and removes all dandruff.

Since Parisian Sage, which can be obtained from Rowland Bros., or at any drug counter, never disappoints, it is no longer necessary for any woman to be humiliated because of thin, faded, or unattractive hair—and pretty hair certainly helps every woman to retain her charm and youthful appearance.

O'HARA'S DEMAND FOR $10,000 CUT $8,000

Lieutenant-Governor Holds Up Illinois Legislature.

Springfield, Ill., June 18.—Troubles over three items of the omnibus appropriation bill threatened to hold up the session of the forty-ninth general assembly until next week.

Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara started the trouble when he held up until two hours after midnight more than a score of house bills because the house had refused to approve an item in the omnibus bill for a $10,000 appropriation to continue for two years the O'Hara vice investigation commission authorized two years ago. He was finally prevailed upon to place the bills on the calendar.

Speaker Shanahan and Governor Dunne were finally called in, and the senate committee agreed to cut the O'Hara appropriation to $2,000.

WOMAN SPEEDER IS KILLED

Boarding House Keeper Riding With Inspector Run Down by Train.

Pana, Ill., June 18.—Mrs. Dolly Getz of Ohlman, west of Pana, was run over and killed by a Big Four freight train while she was seated on a railroad inspector's "speeder" en route from Nokomis to her home in Ohlman. O. A. Trece of the Big Four, who boarded with Mrs. Getz at Ohlman, where she conducted a hotel, was operating the speeder.

The passing of a west bound freight train deadened the sound of the approaching train from the west which ran them down. Trece escaped with minor injuries by jumping, but as Mrs. Getz was on the rear seat she could not escape. Her body was passed over by an engine and sixty freight cars.

Miss Allie Moeller went to Chicago today for a short visit.

ZEPPELIN DESTROYER KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Lieut. Warneford, Doubly Honored, and American Writer Die.

Paris, June 18.—Lieutenant Reginald A. J. Warneford, the Canadian aviator who gained fame recently by blowing to pieces a Zeppelin over Belgium, and was honored by both France and Great Britain with the Victoria Cross and Legion of Honor, was killed by the fall of an aeroplane at Buu, France.

Lieutenant Warneford was piloting the machine, which had a passenger Henry Beach Needham, the American writer, who also was killed.

Henry Beach Needham was a native of Wyncote, Pa. He was born in 1871, studied at Brown university and was admitted to the bar in 1894 and joined the staff of the New York Evening Post in 1896. Later he contributed to magazines.

He became well known through his investigations of labor and living conditions in the Mesaba Range, Minn., and on the Isthmus of Panama. His widow, Mrs. May Masters Needham, lives at Grand Rapids, Mich.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion, that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

Benjamin Franklin—"Father of American Diplomacy"
AMERICA has never produced a greater statesman than Franklin, who was revered by the people second only to Washington. He was a signer of both the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, and his wisdom made the latter a possibility. The great Lord Chatham pronounced him not only an honor to the Anglo-Saxon people, but to human nature. In every capitol of Europe he was a welcome guest, and he it was who induced France to lend us ships, men and money during the darkest days of the Revolution. Upon his death Congress ordered a general mourning of a month. In France it was decreed that all members of the national assembly should wear mourning for three days. So long as Americans treasure the Republic and Personal Liberty as the noblest of all human blessings, the fame of Franklin can never perish. Personally he was possessed of robust health; he was a well-shaped man, of a wise but merry nature; he had the head of a Greek philosopher, while his grace, his noble bearing and winning personality made him a conspicuous figure in any assemblage of great men. He was a moderate user all his lifetime of Old Madeira and barley-malt brews. It is safe to say that he toasted the New Republic with every great man of Europe and America. Franklin considered his work in building the Constitution his greatest service to posterity. Upon the self-evident declaration of the Constitution of the United States Anheuser-Busch 68 years ago launched their gigantic institution. To-day, wherever Americans go for health, or business, or pleasure, their famed brand BUDWEISER is there. Its popularity, due to its quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor, has daily grown in public favor until 7500 people are constantly employed to keep pace with the ever-increasing demand. When in St. Louis visit the home of BUDWEISER.

BRYAN AGAIN TO CALL ON WILSON

Will Head Delegation of Union Labor Leaders for Peace.

RESOLVES TO BE PRESENTED

Former Secretary Will First Address Peace Meeting at Carnegie Hall—Bryan's Plan to Settle the War Will Be Endorsed—Chicago Leaders Start East.

New York, June 18.—Ex-Secretary of State Bryan will head a delegation of fifty of the most prominent labor men in this country next Tuesday to present to the head of the nation a set of resolutions endorsing Mr. Bryan's plans for mediation and for the conduct of the United States in its present difficulties. Congressman Frank Buchanan of Illinois, labor exponent and former president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, made the announcement at a meeting of representatives of many labor unions at Bee-thoven hall, where plans are being made for the labor meeting to be held Saturday evening at Carnegie hall. Congressman Buchanan said that he had extended an invitation to Mr. Bryan by telegraph to come to New York Saturday evening and be the principal speaker at the meeting. Mr. Bryan accepted.

Bryan to Explain.
The former secretary will explain to the labor men his proposition for mediation by the United States, his views on the German question and his idea for a congress of neutral nations to end the war.

It is expected that his plans will be endorsed. Resolutions approving them will be drawn up and a delegation of fifty members will be appointed to carry them to the president. Although the personnel of the delegation has not yet been decided on, Congressman Buchanan will be a member, as will also Samuel Gompers and Ernest Behn, corresponding secretary of the Central Federated union. The others will be named at Carnegie hall and the entire delegation will be headed by Mr. Bryan.

Claim to Represent Labor.
Practically every labor union in the country will be represented at the meeting. Delegations of twenty-five members each have been appointed by each of the New York and New Jersey unions and strong bodies from many of the western states started from Chicago this afternoon. They will represent 3,000,000 members of the Farmers' union, the 2,000,000 members of the American Federation of Labor and the 1,000,000 railway workers. Congressman Fowler of Chicago and ex-President John Fitzpatrick of the Chicago Federation of Labor are among the delegates.

San Francisco, June 18.—The oil tank steamer De Sabla, under charter to the British government, was sunk by a German submarine off the north coast of Scotland Monday, according to a cablegram received by Robert Mitchell, treasurer of the General Petroleum company. The crew was rescued.

The De Sabla, built in 1913 for the General Petroleum company, was named for Eugene de Sabla Jr. of San Francisco, of the company, and was well known on the Pacific coast, where it operated for a time. The vessel was of 6,000 gross tonnage.

Asquith's Son is Wounded.
London, June 18.—News was received in London that Lieutenant Herbert Asquith, a son of the British premier, had been slightly wounded on the field of battle.

Plan London and Paris Air Raids.
Geneva, June 18.—The Germans are preparing for an important combined raid of Zeppelins and aeroplanes on Paris and London in retaliation for the recent attack on German towns by aviators of the allies.

Home Grown Strawberries

will be at their best this and next week (ending the 19th). The berries are exceptionally fine, both in size and flavor owing to the good weather conditions for ripening.

We can not say when the cheapest prices will be made but according to outside markets, good berries are low enough as the growers can ship at present prices and net the usual price here at this writing. And again you will find that the few first pickings of a berry patch are the finest fruit of the season.

The tendency of sugar, jars and tops, is higher. They give the same old excuse—the war.

We are still selling at the old price at present.
